

ACCOUNTING GRADUATE CREDIT CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Learning Outcomes

1. Demonstrate advanced accounting knowledge and technical skills necessary to prepare for CPA licensure and professional practice.
2. Identify accounting issues and conduct relevant research to support informed financial and managerial decision-making.
3. Apply professional accounting standards and regulations in preparing, analyzing, and auditing financial information.
4. Analyze and interpret financial data to communicate results effectively to colleagues, management, and stakeholders.
5. Incorporate ethical and legal considerations into accounting judgements and business decisions.
6. Develop tax planning and financial record management strategies to enhance organizational performance and compliance.