

APPLIED BEHAVIOR ANALYSIS GRADUATE CREDIT CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to select, implement, and explain evidence-based interventions to affect socially significant behavior change for clients.
2. Students will be able to select and explain advantages, disadvantages, and side effects of evidence-based practices for behavioral program implementation.
3. Students will be able to define, apply, and explain concepts related to ABA in supervisory situations.
4. Students will be able to select, implement, and explain evidence-based methods of assessment for behavioral program implementation.
5. Students will be able to explain, communicate, and engage in professional practice using current ethical guidelines in behavior analysis.
6. Students will be able to select, implement, and explain experimental designs for evaluating client progress.
7. Students will be able to use evidence-based methods to collect, display, interpret, and communicate behavioral data.
8. Students will be able to define, apply, and explain concepts and principles of ABA in response to applied situations.
9. Students will be able to define, apply, and explain philosophical underpinnings of ABA in response to applied situations.