

DISTANCE EDUCATION POSTBACCALAUREATE CREDIT CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Person-in-Charge	Heather Zimmerman
Program Code	DISTED
Campus(es)	World Campus

The certificate in Distance Education is a postbaccalaureate program designed for educators, administrators, and trainers who want to expand their knowledge and build competencies in the field of distance education, online learning, and open education. The program provides a systems view of how to structure successful distance learning experiences for higher education, corporate, healthcare, military, non-profit, K-12, and community-based settings. The goal of the program is to provide a solid historical foundation and to assist students in learning the latest trends, issues, research, design, and applications within the field of distance education - while experiencing them firsthand as a student.
