

GLOBAL JUSTICE AND SECURITY GRADUATE CREDIT CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Person-in-Charge	Ahmet Guler
Program Code	GLJSSC
Campus(es)	World Campus

This certificate program aims to study current global justice and security issues as well as international efforts to combat global crime. Global criminal activities have increased to unprecedented levels in the last three decades and transnational organized crime groups have reaped the advantages of being able to operate and carry out their illicit activities beyond national borders. International security organizations and national criminal justice agencies have also intensified their collaborative and cooperative efforts in fighting against transnational criminal activities in the world. Designed mainly for working professionals, this certificate is ideal for both domestic and international criminal justice practitioners who desire to expand their knowledge and skills in global justice and security issues and wish to advance their careers in international security organizations. Moreover, individuals planning to work in a broad range of international security-related careers may enroll in this certificate program to increase their chances to work in international organizations.

Effective Semester: Fall 2026

Expiration Semester: Summer 2031