

PUBLIC HUMANITIES GRADUATE CREDIT CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Admission Requirements

Applicants apply for admission to the program via the Graduate School application for admission (<https://gradschool.psu.edu/graduate-admissions/how-to-apply/>). Requirements listed here are in addition to Graduate Council policies listed under GCAC-300 Admissions Policies (<https://gradschool.psu.edu/graduate-education-policies/>). International applicants may be required to satisfy an English proficiency requirement; see GCAC-305 Admission Requirements for International Students (<https://gradschool.psu.edu/graduate-education-policies/gcac/gcac-300/gcac-305-admission-requirements-international-students/>) for more information.

The Public Humanities Graduate Certificate is open to currently enrolled master's-level and doctoral students at Penn State's University Park Campus. Graduate students who are interested in the certificate should first complete an application for the Public Humanities Fellowship Program at the Humanities Institute. All graduate students accepted into the Public Humanities Fellowship are eligible for the Public Humanities Graduate Certificate.