

LINGUISTICS

Degree Requirements

To qualify for a dual-title degree, students must satisfy the requirements of the disciplinary graduate program in which they originally enrolled, as well as the degree requirements for the interdisciplinary dual-title in Linguistics.

In addition, for the dual-title M.A. in Linguistics, students must take six credits from among the following courses. Substitutions may be made with approval of the home program and Linguistics.

Code	Title	Credits
Required Courses
LING 502	Historical Linguistics	3
LING 500	Syntax II	3
LING 504	Phonology II	3

The M.A. capstone or culminating evaluations must incorporate disciplinary knowledge from Linguistics, and its evaluation (e.g. by an M.A. thesis committee) must include a faculty member from Linguistics as well as the student's home program.
