

INTEGRATED SOCIAL SCIENCES, B.S.

Seven Penn State campuses are scheduled for closure after Spring 2027: DuBois, Fayette, New Kensington, Mont Alto, Shenango, Wilkes-Barre, and York. New students are not being admitted at these campuses.

Begin Campus: World Campus

End Campus: World Campus

Program Learning Objectives

- Argumentation: Students will be able to formulate, debate, and articulate arguments about social phenomena using the language and constructs of the social sciences
- Content Knowledge: Students will be able to articulate the varied theoretical and applied methodologies and interrelationships across the social sciences
- Critical Thinking: Students will utilize critical thinking in analyzing and applying social science perspectives to society's problems
- Information Literacy: Students will display informational literacy that enables them to determine the extent of information needed, access required information, use information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose, and access and use information ethically.
- Research Literacy: Students will demonstrate the ability to conduct, evaluate, and critique quantitative and qualitative social science research