About the College

Patrick Mather, Dean, Schreyer Honors College

The Schreyer Honors College, regarded as one of the nation's top programs of its kind, promotes achieving academic excellence with integrity, building a global perspective, and creating opportunities for leadership and civic engagement. Schreyer Scholars, including Scholars admitted after their first or second year at Penn State, are a diverse and motivated group of approximately 2,000 students across every academic college and most Commonwealth campuses. Schreyer helps students get the most out of Penn State with small honors courses, priority scheduling, individualized support, and a research or creative thesis project.
